Name:_____   Date:_____

Creating Models of Landforms and Bodies of Water

Directions: Listen carefully to your partners' presentation. As they share their landform model with you, use the space below to record: the name of the region, the landforms modeled to represent that region, what went well with the model, and how the model can be improved.

Designers Names:
student responses will vary
Region:
student responses will vary

Landforms modeled:
student responses will vary

What went well?	How can the model be improved?
student responses will vary	student responses will vary